ACTION PROMISED

Propose Increase in Reconsiknment-Charges Stiff Fight To Be Made.

There were no appearances before the Memphis freight rate committee Monday, although there were about 60 cases on the docket, but there promises to be plenty of action next Monday when the proposal to increase the reconsignment rates on all lines is called for a hearing.

the proposal to increase the reconsignment rates on all lines is called for a hearing.

Where the reconsignment rate is now 11, it is proposed to increase it to $2; where the present rate is $2, the proposed rates it $3.50; and where the rate is now $5 it is planned to make it $7.50, the charges varying according to the commodity and conditions.

Among the interests most seriously affected by the proposed increases are the coal dealers, lumbermen, flour and staff men, and brokerage firms generally. These interests will put up a stiff fight against the increase. James S. Davant, commissioner for the Memphis freight bureau, will represent the shippers of the bureau; J. B. McGinnils, commissioner for the hay and gran department of the Memphis Merchants' exchange, will appear for the grain interests. The Southern Hardwood 12 affic association and the Chamber of Commerce will protest the proposal, as well as the attorneys for a number of Individual items.

of Commerce will protest the proposal, as well as the attorneys for a number of individual firms.

The hearing is set for 10 a.m., July 28, at Room 604, Union Planters Bank building, headquarters of the committee. The railroads do not appear before the committee, anly the evidence which interested shippers may wish to offer being considered. The evidence taken is then submitted to the southern freight rate committee at Atlanta.

The members of the local committee are: W. D. Ryan, assistant general freight agent, for the Illinois Central railroad, chairman; J. C. Ryan, general agent for the N., C. & St. L. railroad, and C. H. Ryan, division freight agent for the Lx & N. railroad.

Dog's Hide Is Not Wolf Hide; Court Costs Is Difference

MERIDIAN, Miss., July 19, (Spl.)—Bill Wells, a farmer, said to reside in Kemper county, was arrested on an affidavit made by C. H. Gallup, charging false pretenses. The complainant alleged that the defendant had sold him a dog hide representing it to be that of a wolf, Gallup said to be that of a wolf, Gallup said he paid $2 for the hide.

Wells, in making a statement to Justice of the Feace Roberts, said he had sold the hide to Gallup, telling him that it was that of a wolf in a joke, but Gallup failed to take it that way. Justice Roberts eased the case by allowing Wells to pay Gallup $3 and assessed him with the cost of the court.

Youth Found Dead Near Clifton, Tenn.

ALIFTON, Tenn., July 19. (Spl.)—Near a bridge on a lonely road between Olive Hill. Tenn., and the home of R. M. Moore. Frank Moore, son of Mrs. Charlie Moore, of Paden, Okla., was found dead by neighbors Saturday morning. He had been to Olive Hill to attend an entertainment, and was returning home on horseback. He was riding, it is said, without a girth and it is believed that in some way he fell from the horse or that the horse fell on him, crushing him to death. His mother, who lives in Oklahoma, was notified Saturday morning. Moore was popular and had many friends in this section. He served for several months during the great war in France. He was about 25 years old.

WAR TRAINS STALLED.

TRAINS STABLED.

TIEN TSIN, July 19.—Railway service with Peking has again been interrupted by a collision near Yangtsun. As a result there is much congestion of troop trains from Mukden. A repair train left Yangtsun Sunday and replaced the derailed engine, but was unable to proceed because of congestion due to the arrival of Anfulte reinforcements. Nine trains are stalled in one section alone near Yangtsun. The gates to the city of Peking were closed Sunday to keep out refugees and defeated Anfultes. Fighting has begun on the Chihll-Shantung border. Then Tsin is quiet.

HEARSE RIDES WITH NURSE ARE ALLEGED

MANCHESTER, Vt., July 19 .- Setion of a jury for the trial of Byron M. Pettibone for the murder of his wife on April 6, was begun today. ton April 6, was begun today.

The charges of the prosecution include the story of the alleged infatuation of Pettibone, an undertaker's assistant, for a young woman nurse, whom he first met at homes visited in the course of his work. Witnesses will tell of requent rides by the young woman on the front sent of Pettibone's hearse on trips to hospitals, homes, or to the cemetery, according to the state's attorney. The state contends this infatuation of Pettibone was the motive for his act, although an alleged confession later repudiated by him gave financial worries as the cause.

STATE OWNERSHIP OF PALESTINE LAND URGED

LONDON, July 19.—A recommendation that all the land and property in Palestine be declared the property of the Jewish people and that control of this property be gradually assumed by the Palestine state, was made in the majority report of the commission of 40 which considered the question and submitted to the Zionist conference at the resumption of its sessions here today.
Discussion of the reports by the conference developed the indication that opinion favored the majority recommendation.
